

EQUITABLE FINANCING FOR CLIMATE CHANGE

Presenting experiences from the South and launching new case studies

Funding sustainable adaptation and mitigation from a gender perspective

Opening by Monique Essed-Fernandes WEDO

Liane Schalatek
Heinrich Böll
Foundation North America

The landscape:
Overview of current financing instruments and implications for women.

Athena Peralta
Consultant on Women, Poverty and Ecology
and Elizabeth Eilor African Women's Economic Policy
Network

Presentation of WEDO's new publication "Gender and Climate Change Finance: Case Studies
from the Philippines and Uganda."

Mazoe Gondwe Coalition of Women's Farmers, ActionAid
partner, Malawi

Impacts of climate change on women and agriculture in Malawi and the types of adaptation initiatives that should receive funding.

Mariama Williams Global Gender and Climate Alliance

The way forward: Guidelines and actions to ensure equitable access to climate funds

Photos courtesy ActionAid/Iilana Solomon

Grebe Room, Pavillion 14 B, COP 14, Poznan, Poland 6 December, 13:00 – 15:00

Further information: cate@wedo.org, ilana.solomon@actionaid.org